GREENSBORO BRICK COMPANY.

Another New Organization for Greensboro.

The property along Spring Garden street formerly owned by the Greensboro Brick and Tiling Company has recently been purchased by Messrs. W. A. Watson, Sr., N. A. Hanner, P. R. Coble and J. R. Hutton. The new organization is to be known as the Greensboro Brick Company.

It is the intention of the gentlemen composing the new organization to do a general brick business, and in addition to this to improve the real estate as fast as possible and place the lots on the market.

A temporary shed is in course of erection for drying the brick. The brick mills and brick yard proper, a member of the firm, will be moved back from Spring Garden street and nearer the railroad as soon as possible, or whenever the necessary arrangements can be made.

We wish these gentlemen much success. They should find ready sale for all the brick they can make. For a small building at the State Normal and Industrial College recently, brick could not be purchased in Greensboro and had to be shipped here from another point.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.

The Bryan Speaking—Prof. Potat Lectures—Other Items.

Chapel Hill, Feb. 15.—Col. William Jennings Bryan spoke in Chapel Hill yesterday, having come here by invitation of the student body of the University, who held a mass meeting last Friday for the purpose of inviting him. Col. Bryan came in from Raleigh on the morning train, accompanied by State Chairman F. M. Simmons, Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh; A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro; Francis D. Winston, of Bertie county, and a number of other prominent North Carolina democrats. A committee from the student body also accompanied him from Raleigh, and another committee met the party at University Station.

The speaking was held in Gerrard Hall and an admission fee of 50 cents was charged. By 12 o'clock the hall was packed and when, shortly before 12:30 o'clock, the great democratic leader entered, the crowd rose in a body and sent up a series of deafening yells that lasted for several minutes. Col. Bryan spoke for two hours on money, trusts and expansion.

Upon his return to the hotel he was met by another large gathering of enthusiastic people, who, having failed to gain entrance to the hall, gave him an ovation and demanded a speech. He replied with a speech of twenty minutes.

Of the proceeds from Col. Bryan's speech at Gerrard Hall, $250 will go to establish a medal for the best thesis on "The Science of Government," and the remainder will be divided between the Dialectic and Philanthropic literary societies.

Max O'Reilly, the French humorist, delivered his lecture on "The Little Fables of John A. Bull, Sandy and Pats" in Gerrard Hall last Saturday night.

Rev. N. M. Watson, pastor of the Methodist church in Greensboro, is University preacher this week.

Prof. W. L. Potat, of Wake Forest College, lectured to the students of the University last Friday night.

Gen. John B. Gordon has been engaged to deliver his lecture on "The Little Fables of John A. Bull, Sandy and Pats" in Chapel Hill during the near future.

Governor Bob Taylor will probably also be secured to lecture here during the present term.

The University track team and the baseball team are practicing daily now. Both teams have some excellent new material and the prospects are that the University will be exceedingly well represented in athletics this spring.

DISASTROUS EFFECT.

Dr. Broughton's Statement Cruelly Hurtful.

Winston Journal.

We were discussing the statement of Dr. L. G. Broughton regarding girl stenographers. One of them was a well known minister of Atlanta—the pastor of one of the city's most popular churches.

"Well, I know an estimable old couple in the city who have been struggling along for quite a while, trying to give their little granddaughter an orphan girl, by the way—a business education so that she will be able to support herself. Well, the girl has just left school, finished in her studies, and was expecting to take a position now in a few days which would pay her a very nice salary."

"But now here comes along this statement of one of Atlanta's ministers, casting odium on the profession of stenographers. It is taken up in the newspapers, a big stir is raised, people are discussing it on every hand, and what is the result?"

"Why, simply, the old grandmother is worried almost to death, the young girl has cried over it, the hearts of both are sadly crushed by the suspicious which have been suddenly cast over the profession—a profession which was so full of promise to the young girl—and now the idea of accepting a situation as a stenographer has been abandoned by the girl, and she has gone to work for almost a pittance folding circulars."

I guess Dr. Broughton has made a mistake—I know he has. His statistics were not correct. But maybe everything will come out all right yet."

Hummel Bound Over.

The preliminary trial of Charles Hummel for shooting his son, Ross Hummel, was held before Judge Pearson yesterday afternoon in the grand jury room. After introducing Sam Kerney and Dr. Rison and Turner for the state, the justice was frank to tell Col. Barringer, counsel for the defendant, that it would be useless for him to introduce testimony or even to prove that the shooting was done in self-defense. The "Squire" had decided, that on the evidence of the physicians, who said the young man was dangerously wounded, it was not a bailable case, and he would have to send the man to jail. He was accordingly taken to Winston this morning.

A Valentine Party.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brookmann last night very generously surrendered their home on East Washington street to a crowd of many young people for a Valentine party. The usual social enjoyments of such occasions were indulged in, and a most pleasant evening was spent.

NOW NOT AFTER TAYLOR.

DEMOCRATIC PAPERS USE THE UNGLOVED HAND.

Editorial Journal Says People Have Lost Their Heads for Less Offense—Other Articles.

Frankfort, Feb. 15.—Kentucky is settling down to the belief that whatever be the result of the legal contests for the office of governor Taylor will continue to hold the office for many days to come. Democrats will not admit this Democratic paper, after urging the people to keep the peace for the past two weeks, are indulging in attacks on Taylor. The Courier-Journal says:

"The rebellion of Taylor against the constitution of Kentucky is a crime which cannot be expiated by tame submission after his purpose has failed. For an act less reprehensible than this, the law has claimed many noble victims at the hands of the law."

The Kentucky State Democrat, organ of the party here, prints the following:

"We believe it was Mrs. Suratt who was executed for harboring an assassin, and a shot was fired from her house either. As a result, do you want to make a cool hundred thousand dollars? If so, prove beyond a doubt who conspired with you to kill Goebel. Justice cries aloud; not for the man who pulled the trigger, but for those who laid the damnable plot."

Other papers contain articles of similar nature.

Under the established rule of practice in Kentucky, Governor Taylor's suit, having been filed first, takes precedence of the suit of Judge Cantrell, does not follow the established rule and grants a temporary restraining order, the order will not be effective and Taylor will ignore it. Judge Taft's decision having left the contest board free to act, that board went to work today to oust all republican officers. The republicans will make no contest, but will bring suits similar to that of Governor Taylor.

An indication of the extent to which democratic officials are prepared to go was shown this afternoon when a convict served a term for burglary was released on a pardon signed by Beckham. The warden of the prison refused to recognize a pardon issued by Taylor a week ago for a convict by the name of Hays.

There is a conference of republicans going on tonight at executive mansion, and there is some talk of further surprises for the democrats. Ex-Governor Bradley is a mong those in consultation.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Ripe tomatoes were seen in the well
kept flower house at the Normal today.

Your attention is respectfully called to the list of new ads today in the penny column.

The only man among the party of visitors at the Normal this morning
who secured a souvenir was Mr. C. G.
Wright.

The property belonging to Solomon Coltrane, on South Elm street, is being greatly improved by grading,
turfing and terracing the yards.

For some reason our High Point correspondence failed to show up to-

LaBelle glove cleaner. It is not a liquid, leaves no odor and can be used

The committee from the board of aldermen and the committee from the Industrial and Immigration association, who jointly visited the Normal today, will prepare a statement for publication on the very excellent condition in which they found things.

A short drive through the city today brings to mind again the thing
this paper has so often advocated—good roads and streets. The winter
so far has been a remarkably dry one,
yet there are places now in the city
which are almost impassable.

That Shirt Sale

advertised in the Telegram some days ago by Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees, seems to have caught the eyes of the public.

It was colored shirt ad, but so many have been inquiring for white shirts that the firm concluded to run in a few extra bargains, and will sell tomorrow $1.25 values in white shirts at

WANTED TO SEE HIM JUMP.

Citizen Fires on a Thief Who Was Stealing Wood.

Everybody knows Mr. Vuncannon,
the popular groceryman, and knows that he is a peaceable, quiet man. He was aroused from his slumbers this morning about one o'clock by a noise in his back yard. Raising himself on one elbow, he listened and his suspicion was confirmed. Some one was stealing his wood which was carefully stacked up against a fence in the rear of the residence. He could hear each stick dislodge as it fell into place
in a huge armful.

This was too much and our quiet,
neighborly friend got up and crept cautiously to the back door. In the dim moonlight, made dimmer by clouds, Mr. Vuncannon saw the thief standing by the woodpile. He tiptoed back to his room, got his double barreled shot gun and promised his wife he wouldn't kill the man, that he only wanted to frighten him good. He gave himself good distance and aiming at the ground near the feet of the thief fired one barrel, expecting to pepper
the man with the other one as he jumped over a barbed wire fence.

He fired, as we have remarked, and instead of seeing a man flying through the air Mr. Vuncannon was astonished to see own horse kick up his heels and make a break for the barn lot. The horse had got out of the stable and was probably rubbing his neck against the woodpile when he was mistaken for a thief. Mr. Vuncannon is glad that his wife interposed, for had she not begged him not to kill the man, he thinks he would have shot a little higher and as a result would have wounded his horse.

Company.

Some days ago, as stated in a brief announcement, a charter was issued to the Southern Import and Commission Company, in this city.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the above company held last night in the Southern Loan and Trust Company's building, the following officers were elected: J. S. Kuykendall, president, E. P. Wharton, vice-president, J. N. Leak, secretary and treasurer.
The directors chosen are as follows:
E. P. Wharton, J. M. Walker, H. L.
Hohlfeld, A. E. B. Alford, C. H. Ir-land, J. W. Ballance, J. S. Kuyken-

The capital stock of this company is $25,000. The object of the company is to represent the mills and manufacturers along the various lines of carpets, rugs, making, dry goods, and all kindred branches. They will actually sell goods in various other lines manufactured north. First-
